G.D. GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL
Subject: English, Date: August 9, 2021
Aspect: Supporting Content (Home Assignment)
Note: This PDF is not to be printed

Chapter 11: The Roasted Beans

Prime English Grammar Book page no. 99 to 106

Read the following sentence.

The coffee my mother made tastes very good.

Now read these words aloud.

food door

In English, the vowel sound OO appears with many different pronunciations in different words. The most common pronunciation for the letter OO is the sound [u]. This happens in words like 'zoo', 'food', 'moon', 'loop'. OO. The lips are a bit relaxed, and then they come into a tighter circle. OO.

The letters OO can be pronounced in five different ways:

as in the word good.

as in the word door.

as in the word food.

Words that sound like food: loop, boot, school

Words that sound like good: soot, wood, wool

Words that sound like door: floor

Read the words in the table below. Colour them red if they sound like food. Colour them green if they sound like good.

book	cool	look	roof	pool
stood	hook	moon	soon	foot

GDGPS