Week 15: Day 1, Monday (Date:01-11-2021)

Objectives: By the end of this topic, students will be able to:

- ★ Read and recite the poem with proper pronunciation.
- ★ Relate to the theme of the poem, "friendship and sharing " at a personal level. They will understand that friendship and love are more important than materialistic things.

Summary: The poem crayons is written by, "Hellen H. Moore". This poem is about a little girl Milli who always shares her things with her friend. The themes of this poem are friendship and sharing. In this poem it is said that Milli has a box of crayons which is shiny and new. She lent one crayon to her friend and while coloring, her friend accidentally broke it into two pieces. Her friend was sorry for breaking this crayon. Milli was so helpful and caring she said she don't care because now they both can color with one crayon as it has broken into two pieces.

I have a box of crayons

All shiny straight and new

I lend a friend one crayon

And oops , it breaks in two.

My friend says , she is sorry ,

But I say I don't care,

As now we both can colour

With one crayon we can share.
