

G. D. GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL, SRINAGAR

Grade 4

Subject:- Moral Science

Note: The given content need not to be printed.

Building Your House.

Chapter 07.

Pg.no.43-48.

Learning Objectives:

- To make students understand the importance of being loyal.
- To enhance the cognitive and critical thinking among the students.

Moral Of The Story:- We get the following two morals from this story:

1. Our attitude and the choices we make today help us to build the 'house' we live in tomorrow. Therefore, build wisely.
2. Whenever we accept any work, we should do it with honesty and give our best to it.

Building Your House.

Chapter 07.

P.no.43-48 .

NOTEBOOK WORK.

- All work is to be done on Moral Science notebook.
- Fill the index page properly.

Talk About.

Q1. Why did the elderly carpenter want to retire?

Ans. The elderly carpenter wanted to retire because he was getting older and decided to live a leisurely life.

Q2. What did the contractor ask the elderly carpenter to do as a personal favour?

Ans. The contractor asked that if he could build just one more house as a personal favour.

Q3. Was the carpenter sincere to his work ? Give reasons for your answer.

Ans. No, the carpenter was not sincere to his work because he resorted to shoddy workmanship and used inferior materials.

Q4. ' my gift to you'. What was the gift ?

Ans. The 'house' was the gift.

Q5. Why was the carpenter shocked on receiving the gift?

Ans. The carpenter was shocked as if he had only known that he was building his own house ,he would have done it differently.

Q6. Do you think the carpenter was loyal to his work?

Ans. No ,as his heart was not in his work ,so he didn't build the house with honesty.