G.D. GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL, SRINAGAR

Aspect: Supporting Content MMCB

Topic: My brother, my brother

Grade: 6th English Dated: 24-09-2021

Transitive verb:

Transitive verbs are used with a direct object.

When a verb is Transitive, the sentence describes an action received by a direct object.

Example: Sher Singh crossed the river.

She wrote a story.

Intransitive verb:

Intransitive verbs are used without a direct object.

When a verb is intransitive, the sentence describes an action received by an object.

Example: Sher Singh trembled with fear.

Birds fly in the sky.

GDGPS

Q1. Identify and write 'T' for Transitive, 'int' for intransitive and 'no' if there is no verb in the sentence.

a. Intransitive

b. Transitive

c. Intransitive

d. No

e. Transitive

f. Transitive

g. Transitive

h. No

i. Intransitive

j. Transitive

Q2. Frame Transitive sentences with the following verbs.

a. Wring: Mother wrings out wet clothes during the winter.

b. Carried: The lady carried the basket to the market.

c. Hoped: she hoped good for her students.

d. Disappeared: The clouds disappeared after the sunset.

GDGPS

e. Scrambled: The helicopter scrambled to rescue the kids from flood.

f. Seized: The police seized the car from the thief.

g. Stumbled: The boy stumbled and fell down.

h. Crawling: The baby was crawling the entire floor.

GDGPS