Irregular verbs:

Irregular verbs are the verbs that don't take suffix 'ed' at the end of the verb to form the past tense. We change tense of such verbs by replacing the letters, mainly the vowels.

Q1. Choose the correct verb and change it into the past tense and fill in the blanks in each of the following sentences.

One day Shaukat prepared a paan for the emperor and the coat of lime (a) made thicker, than it normally was Mahesh Das knew that Shaukat was in deep trouble. He gave Shaukat a piece of valuable advice. Shaukat took the advice seriously and ate a bowl of ghee before going to the Emperor's court. Once there, the guards made sure that Shaukat drank all the lime.

When the Emperor saw that nothing happened to Shaukat, he was greatly surprised, but in the end, he forgave Shaukat and let him go.
