Q1. The Rock Garden is now acknowledged as an artistic achievement. It is truly inspiring to see how well all trash has been put to good use as one of the modern wonders of the world because of which it is unimaginable creation of India next to the Taj Mahal.

Q2. Yes, Nek Chand had proved that a lot could be done with what is considered as waste. He made the best use out of the waste material. He began with a little picture in his mind and created an amazingly large picture in the form of Rock Garden which could be seen by the whole world.

Q3. If the local government officials had not granted permission and assistance to Nek Chand, he would have faced a great hinderance. Probably his dream would have shattered and nobody would have been able to know this great visionary of India.

Q4. Nek Chand's creation is truly an expression of hope for a better and cleaner environment. He taught the world how one could make the best use of what seems to be trash and useless and this was done by him in an artistic manner.

Q5. Self attempt.
