Chapter 21: Writing a Diary Entry

Prime English Grammar Book page no. 96-98

Objective: By the end of this topic, students will be able to understand the purpose of writing a diary and will be able to write diary entries.

What is a diary entry?

Diary entry is a personal record of personal experiences, thoughts and feelings.

It can be considered as a friend with whom you can be yourself and share your intimate thoughts and emotions.

It also helps improve our handwriting and writing skills.

Keeping a diary

You can keep a record of people you meet, the places you visit, exciting things that you do at home or school, or the memories of a holiday or common place, everyday events.

Lets us now learn how to write a diary entry.

1. Write the date (day, month and year) on the top corner of a fresh page.

Example Wednesday, 10 November, 2021

2. Write the place.

Example Karan Nagar

3. Write the greetings.

You may address the diary as a friend and write 'Dear Diary'.

4. Write the introduction

Example: I had the most wonderful day today!

5. Write the body of the diary

6. Write the conclusion (ending part).

While writing the diary, keep following points in your mind:

*Write the diary entry in the first person (I, we), since this your personal story or personal account of the event.

*Write the events in the correct order.

*Provide important details of the place, time, people or things.

*Write about your feelings in detail and explain why you feel that way.

*You can draw or stick pictures to make the entry more interesting.

*You may use simple or informal language, but avoid slang.

Dear students now write a diary entry on 'What you did on Sunday'.
