

G. D. GOENKA PUBLIC SCHOOL, SRINAGAR

Subject: Moral Science Grade: 2 Dated: 16-11-2021

Aspect: Supportive Content

CHAPTER: 10

TOPIC: Honesty

NOTE: This PDF is not to be printed.

Honesty is telling the truth
Olivia is kind and helps others to say the right thing
Never tell a lie
Everyone listens and share
She is truthful
The truth feels good
You can be respectful to others

Warm up:

Arun finds a ten rupee note in the school playground. He gives it to the school office.

What do you know from this?

😊 Arun is a honest boy

😊 Arun is a dishonest boy.

Let us Read and Learn

Story: The Diamond Ring

There was once a poor woman in a village. She went to the forest every day to gather firewood. One day, as she was cutting the firewood, her gold ring fell off. She looked for it everywhere but could not find it. She sat down on the ground weeping loudly. The gold ring was the only precious thing she had. She wanted to present the ring to her only daughter. Just then a beautiful lady appeared. She looked like an angel. She asked the woman why she was crying. The woman told her what had happened.

The lady vanished for a moment and returned with a beautiful ring. It had a shining diamond on it. She said, here is your ring.

The poor woman said, this not my ring. Mine is only a simple gold ring. I would be happy if you could get that back for me. The lady smiled and disappeared. She returned with the poor woman's old ring. The woman jumped with joy.

'Thank You! Thank You! The old woman said to the lady.

I shall give it to my daughter on her wedding day.

The lady smiled at her and disappeared again.

Many years later, the woman's daughter was getting married.

Being poor, she had only the gold ring to present her daughter. The old woman put the ring inside a small wooden box and gave it to her daughter.

Just as her daughter opened the box, she cried out in surprise. Inside the box, there was a ring with a sparkling diamond on it.

The people looked at it in surprise. Suddenly there was a bright light in the sky.

Everyone looked up and saw the beautiful lady. She smiled as she waved at the people. Thus, you see, how the old woman was rewarded for her honesty.

