About the author

Roald Dahl was one of the best children's book writers, an ace fighter pilot and a chocolate historian. He was a huge fan of chocolates. Charlie and the chocolate factory, The BFG and Matilda are some of his best works on which several films have been made. There is a ROALD DAHL Museum and the Story Centre in Great Missenden, where various galleries showcase his work.

Gist of the story

One night, Sophie sees The BFG blowing good dreams into the window of children. The BFG then takes her from her window and they travel all night long, Sophie eventually realizes The BFG isn't going to eat her; he is just taking her to his home in giant country. Since the BFG speaks in gobble funk, sometimes his words come out sounding strangely, but Sophie thinks he speaks beautifully. The BFG and Sophie soon become great friends. Sophie tells The BFG that no one will miss her at the orphanage.
