To nurture a lifelong love for reading and spark literary curiosity among young learners, GD Goenka Public School, Srinagar, observed Reading Week on June 19, 2025, with great enthusiasm across all three libraries of the school. The celebration was inaugurated by Miss Sabreen Akhtar, Senior Librarian, during the morning assembly, officially marking the beginning of a week filled with imagination, inspiration, and knowledge.

Senior Library – The World of Shakespeare

Senior students immersed themselves in the works of William Shakespeare, appreciating the beauty of his language, the depth of his characters, and the universality of his themes. This exploration enriched their understanding of classic literature and dramatic expression.

Middle Library – Lives That Inspire

Students explored inspiring biographies of world leaders and visionaries including Abraham Lincoln, Mother Teresa, M.K. Gandhi, Sir Muhammad Iqbal, and Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam. These real-life stories instilled in them the values of courage, empathy, perseverance, and leadership.

Middle & Senior Sections:

Students participated in assessments and reflective discussions based on their readings, demonstrating comprehension, analysis, and critical thought.

Junior Library – A World of Fairy Tales

Our youngest Goenkans stepped into the magical world of classics such as Cinderella and Goldilocks and the Three Bears. The timeless tales sparked joy and wonder, cultivating early reading habits and a love for storytelling.

At the end students confidently narrated their favorite stories, showcasing imagination, expression, and fluency.

The Spirit of Reading Week

The entire week proved to be more than just an academic exercise—it was a celebration of curiosity, creativity, and connection with books. By kindling a passion for reading, the initiative reaffirmed the belief that “Readers are dreamers, thinkers, and the leaders of tomorrow.”
